This dashboard presents data on gun-related incidents in the United States from 2019 to 2023. It allows comparison of total incidents, timing, and types of gun violence across states and years.

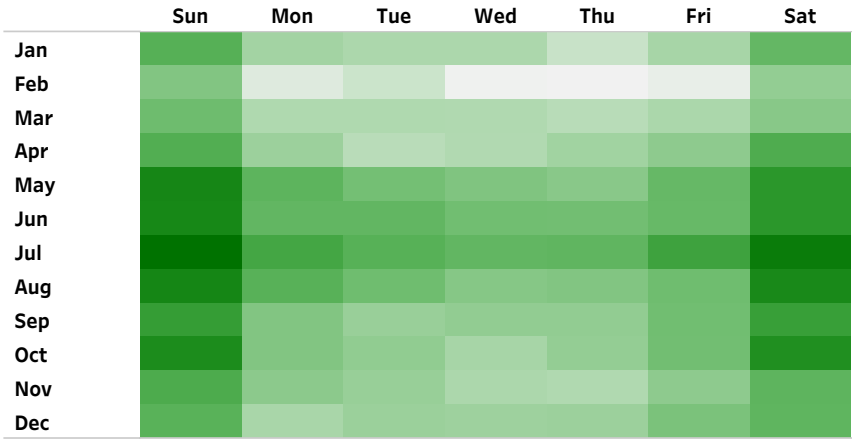

The first view is a hex map showing total incidents by state, with darker colors representing higher counts. A year filter lets users track changes over time.

The second view is a heat table that shows how incidents vary by month and day of the week, revealing patterns in timing and seasonality.

The final view is a bar chart that highlights a selection of specific incident types for the state of Ohio, including domestic violence, accidental shootings, and mass shootings.

Data sources: Gun Violence Archive (2019–2023) and U.S. Census Bureau (2010–2024 population estimates).
